The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 6. to Saturday April 10. 1714

Venice, March 30. N. S.

THE Magiſtrates of Health has received advice, that the contagious Diſtemper is again broke out at Fribourg; upon which all Perſons who come into the Territories of this State, through Tirol, are ordered to perform a Quarentine of Forty Days. Prince Hercolani intends to take his Leave of the Government in a few Days, and Count Coloredo is expected in his ſtead with the Character of Ambaſſador in Ordinary from the Emperor. Four Men of War are fitting out here, and will be ready very ſoon to ſet Sail for the Levant. They write from Rome, that Count Gallas arrived there on the 21ſt, being met at ſome diſtance from the City, by the Marquis de Prie, and the Conſtable de Colonna. As ſoon as he alighted out of his Coach, he gave notice of his arrival to the Pope, who ſent Cardinal Albani, his Nephew, to compliment him upon it. A Conſiſtory had been held, in which the Pope gave the Pallium to ſeveral new Biſhops, and perform'd the Ceremony of ſhutting the Mouth of Cardinal Piazza. The Differences with the Republick of Genoa were in a fair way of being amicably accommodated. Letters from Naples bring an account, that a new Gally had been launch'd there with great Ceremony, in the Preſence of the Court. Count Attalaya, Vice-Roy of Sardinia, had taken the Oath of Fidelity for the Government of the Citadel of Naples, lately confirm'd upon him by the Emperor. The Duke de la Rocca, who went with a Commiſſion to the Court of Vienna, was return'd from thence very well pleas'd with the Succeſs of his Negotiations.

Hamburgh, April 10. N. S. The Demolition of Tonningen is carried on with great Diligence, notwithſtanding the Interceſſions that have been uſed by the Court of Berlin to prevent it. His Daniſh Majeſty having received a Letter from the King of Pruſſia to that purpoſe, return'd Anſwer, That it was now too late; that he had found Papers in the Governor's ſtrong Box, which would convince the World it was by the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein's Order that Count Steinbock had enter'd into the Place, and therefore no Prince ought to interpoſe in that Affair, or could have any reaſon to take his Proceedings againſt the Houſe of Gottorp amiſs. However the Holſtein Miniſters at Berlin are ſtill in Expectation that the King of Pruſſia will make ſome Attempt in Favour of their Maſter. The Muſcovite Miniſter at the ſame Court is very preſſing to know his Majeſty's poſitive Reſolution upon this Subject, and declares, that the Czar will reſent any Act of Hoſtility againſt the King of Denmark, in the ſame manner as if it was committed againſt himſelf. The Swediſh Officers at this Place are ſent for by General Ducker into Pomerania, and the Garriſons of Stralſund and Wiſmar are commanded to be in a readineſs to take the Field upon the firſt notice, from whence it is believed that General intends to form a Body of Men in thoſe Parts, in order to hinder the Danes, if poſſible, from paſſing into Scania: But as the King of Denmark is under an Engagement to the Czar to make that Expedition, it is thought he will hardly be brought to alter his Meaſures. It was ſuppoſed the States of Sweden would have ſeparated, after they had agreed on the Method of raiſing a Supply for this Year, the Princeſs Regent having receiv'd Orders from the King to diſſolve them: But they have repreſented to her and the Serate, That it is abſolutely neceſſary they ſhould continue aſſembled in the preſent Conjuncture, ſo dangerous to the Kingdom, which is threatned with two Invaſions at the ſame time, on the ſide of Scania and Finland: That they have no means to deliver themſelves from their Calamity, but by a ſpeedy Peace with their Enemies: That ſince the King is abſent, they give the Regent full Authority to conclude a Treaty; humbly beſeeching her Royal Highneſs to enter into a Negotiation, without delay, for the Satisfaction of the Nation, which has ſuffer'd extreme Miſery for Fourteen Years. They write from Petersbourg, that the Czar had receiv'd an Expreſs from Prince Galizen, with an Account, that he had attack'd the Swedes near Waſa, and had entirely defeated them after an obſtinate Fight, which laſted four Hours. He had taken ſeveral Officers Priſoners, and had made himſelf Maſter of all their Artillery, together with a conſiderable number of Colours and Standards. The ſame Advices add, that the Czar was reſolv'd to make the Campaign in Perſon, and Prince Menzikoff was to Command under him. His firſt Attempt would be upon the Iſle of Aland, which being once reduced, there was nothing to hinder him from penetrating into the Heart of the Kingdom. Letters from Conſtantinople bring an Account, that no Perſon whatever was allow'd to ſee the King of Sweden at Demotica, nor King Staniſlaus at Bender, without leave of the Grand Signior.

Hanover, April 10. N. S. His Electoral Highneſs often takes the diverſion of Hunting near this City. We are informed that Mr. Harley is on his way from Amſterdam to this Place, where he is expected every Day. They write from Brunſwick, that the Duke of Wolfenbuttel was buried without Ceremony, as he had order'd himſelf. We have receiv'd advice from Petersbourg, that the Muſcovite Army under the command of General Galizen, had attack'd the Swedes at Kyro near Waſa, and were twice repuls'd with conſiderable Loſs. But being much ſuperior in number to their Enemies, they brought up freſh Forces, and charg'd them a third time. The Swedes were entirely defeated, and Major-General Arenfeld, their Commander, eſcap'd with great Difficulty, and retired to Carleby, with about Seven hundred Men that remained after this Action.

Hague, April 13. N. S. Several of the Deputies of the States General were Yeſterday at the Earl of Strafford's Houſe, where his Excellency deliver'd to them a Letter from the Queen, and afterwards they held a long Conference upon the preſent ſituation of Affairs. Mr. St. John, Her Majeſty's Secretary at the Congreſs of Utrecht, ſet out from hence on the 8th, in order to embark for Great Britain at the Brill, where he is ſtill detain'd by contrary Winds. Baron Spar, one of the King of Sweden's Generals, who arrived here lately from Paris, is gone to Hamburgh, and from thence he is to proceed to Turky. Yeſterday Prince Kurakin, Ambaſſador of Muſcovy to this Republick, ſet out for the Congreſs of Brunſwick, where he is to aſſiſt as one of the Czar's Plenipotentiaries. Monſieur Siegel, Miniſter of the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, has notify'd the Death of the late Duke to all the Miniſters reſiding here, and has receiv'd their Compliments of Condolance upon it. General Barner, Miniſter of Holſtein, having taken his Leave of the States, is gone from hence in order to return home, in purſuance of Orders he receiv'd from his Maſter to that purpoſe.

Whereas